

Dear Chairman Powell,

Please do not relax the rules governing ownership of media outlets in a given area, they are already too lax. I am deeply concerned about the chilling effect on news reporting of large corporations owning a large fraction of the news agencies and all of them reporting on, or avoiding, the same stories.

Alicia E. Christiansen, BA